

blending contemporary and traditional bluegrass sounds for today's music lover

Newgrass Effect is a progressive, contemporary bluegrass band, featuring seasoned DC-area musicians whose repertoire includes traditional bluegrass sounds and also crosses over into other forms of music. The quintet features some of the Metro region's most acclaimed performers: Carolyn Kellock on bass, Scott Morgan on guitar, John Relph on mandolin, Alexander Mitchell on fiddle, and Terry Wittenberg on banjo. Noted for their dynamic instrumentals and melodic, three-part harmonies, the band's live performances are exciting, crowd-pleasing events. Be sure to check out the schedule and come hear Newgrass Effect in person. Contact Newgrass Effect to schedule a booking at your private event, party, or bar/club!
